ii) In the case that applicants have paid the fee twice by mistake

4) If it is turned out that an applicant has made false statements or has neglected matters to be stated on application documents, the admission may be revoked even after enrollment.

5) In order to enroll in JAIST as a degree seeking student (full-time master's/doctoral program student), research students must pass an entrance examination. Research students who have not finished the tuition fee payment for research period might be rejected from admission as a degree seeking student of JAIST.

6) If you wish to enroll as a regular student in the Master's or Doctoral program at JAIST, please contact the Admissions Section <nyushi@ml.jaist.ac.jp>.

For International students

- 1) Non-Japanese applicants have to conduct research more than 10 hours per week according to the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act in order to enroll under the status of residence “student”.
- 2) If non-Japanese applicants living in Japan had been enrolled in other universities in Japan as a non-degree seeking student such as research student or course oriented student before applying to JAIST, they must contact the Immigration Bureau to confirm whether the extension of visa can be accepted or not because their extension of residence period might not be accepted. If the extension of residence period cannot be accepted, JAIST doesn't approve their enrollment. It is the responsibility of each applicant to contact the Immigration Bureau before the application. In addition, students are responsible to update their residence period status after enrolling in JAIST.
- 3) If non-Japanese applicants hope to move in the JAIST student housing, contact the Student Welfare Section at gakusei@ml.jaist.ac.jp before application.

8. Handling of Personal Data

Names, addresses, and other personal data provided in the application documents will be used for the purpose of screening applicants (application process and selection). If the applicant is admitted to JAIST, the information will be used for educational affairs (student registration management).
